

Vortragsreihe Wintersemester 2005/06
Raum 001, Binderstr. 34, Donnerstags 18 Uhr c.t.

- 27.10.05 Prof. Dr. Dr. Dr. h.c. mult. Klaus J. Hopt, Direktor des Max-Planck-Instituts für ausländisches und internationales Privatrecht, Hamburg
European Company Law and Corporate Governance - Where Does the Action Plan of the European Commission Lead?
- 03.11.05 Prof. Dr. Dr. Christian Kirchner, Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin
New Concepts for Organising Savings-Bank Groups
- 10.11.05 Prof. Dr. Gérard Hertig, Eidgenössische Technische Hochschule Zürich
Using Basel II to Facilitate Access to Finance: Requiring Banks to Disclose their Internal Ratings
- 17.11.05 Andrew Griffiths, University of Manchester
The Economic Rationale of Trade Mark Protection
- 24.11.05 Prof. Robert D. Cooter (Ph.D.), University of California, Berkeley
Law and Economic Development
- 01.12.05 Henning Fräßdorf, Universität Hamburg
Technische Standardisierung im Spannungsfeld zwischen Kartellrecht und gewerblichen Schutzrechten
Stephan Wittig, Universität Hamburg
Law and Economics of International Trade
- 08.12.05 Prof. Dr. Andreas Schwartze, Universität Innsbruck
Remedies for Breach of Contract - Comparative and Economic Perspectives
- 15.12.05 Prof. James R. Gordley, University of California, Berkeley
The Premises of Economic Analysis of Law
- 12.01.06 Prof. Henrik Lando (Ph.D.), Copenhagen Business School
On the Optimal Legal Regulation of Sales to Consumers
- 19.01.06 Prof. Ariel Porat (Ph.D.), University of Tel-Aviv
The Hidden Roles of Boilerplate
- 26.01.06 Prof. Dr. Wolfgang Kerber, Philipps-Universität Marburg
New Frontiers in Institutional Economics
- 02.02.06 Prof. Dr. Stephan Voigt, Universität Kassel
Unbundling the Economic Effects of Judicial Institutions
- 09.02.06 Justice Hendrik Kerkmeester, Court of Appeal for Trade and Industry, The Hague
The Regulation of Public Utilities: A Court's Perspective